Spirit

My spirit exhibition was inspired by a trip to Uluru where I was overseeing four commissioned sculptures at "Sails in the Desert Resort".

The intense ochre of Uluru & Kata Tjuta, the burnt remnants of eucalyptus trees, the spirit of the land left a permanent mark on me, natural beauty & the harshness of the bush that weave their tales of the indigenous spirit & their inspiring connection to the land.

The diversity of materials used whether industrial or organic, have a texture, shape or tone that trigger an inspirational moment, that eventually take form & evolve into something whimsical, playful, poetic drawing on my overwhelming inspiration from nature.

I find working with nature, creating organic forms, shapes & textures actually play a huge role in fine tuning "the art of seeing" in my art practice.

The play of light & shadows, create a "spirit" of the art piece, casting beautiful shadows, a natural drawing.

Spirit is a huge part of my heart & soul, inspired by my love & passion for nature.
